Belle Isle Castle is an exclusive venue hidden away on a magical private island with stunning views of the water and surrounding countryside. The castle is licenced for Civil Wedding ceremonies for up to 65 guests. Couples may take their vows in three locations – the Grand Hall, the elegant drawing room or outdoors in the charming sunken garden.

Photographs can be taken throughout the grounds of the castle as well as on the terrace with its stunning backdrop of Lough Erne. Following the ceremony a reception for up to 60 can be held in the splendour of the Grand Hall. Our experienced chef will help you choose your six course banquet with wines from the castle's cellar. The eight luxurious Castle bedrooms can accommodate up to 16 while all additional guests can stay in the nearby coach houses and courtyard. At Belle Isle every wedding is specially tailored to make each celebration totally individual and truly memorable.

The tranquil and unique setting of Belle Isle is also perfect for small conferences, team-building sessions or private meetings.

What the busy meeting organiser wants most is peace of mind. Knowing that the morning coffee will be there on arrival; the required AV equipment will be in place and will work first time; the room temperature will be comfortable; lunch will be served hot and on time (even if the meeting overruns); the mineral water will be chilled; the meeting will not be disturbed; ...Belmore Court and Motel has three purpose built conference and banqueting suites to offer. The Belmore Room converts into a meeting room and can accommodate 40 delegates for a conference. The Lowry Room and Cole Rooms are primarily used as a training room and can be set in the following styles: U shape, Theatre style, Boardroom or Classroom style. Our management and banqueting team will be continually on hand to assist you through every stage of your event. Ideally located in the heart of Enniskillen and within close proximity to all Enniskillen Wedding venues the Belmore Court and Motel is the perfect accommodation provider to place guests attending your wedding.

Blessingbourne Estate is a historic 550 acre country estate nestled in the heart of woodlands and wildlife on the edge of the Clogher Valley and Fermanagh Lakelands - one of Ireland's most tranquil and magical locations.

Weddings

If you are looking for a secluded rural estate for a relaxed country wedding, Blessingbourne is the perfect place. It's not like hiring a hotel or a formal venue our Coach House is somewhere you can plan your own wedding and decide how you would like the party to look and feel. We have the perfect location for a marquee at the side of the Manor House to host larger weddings with fabulous views overlooking our private lakes. This offers the perfect setting for memorable photos for your special day. You will have exclusive use while you are at Blessingbourne Estate and freedom to create a wonderful occasion that you'll remember forever.

Business meetings and Corporate Events

Blessingbourne Coach House located in our 300 year old courtyard offers the perfect creative meeting venue for groups. This former 18th century Coach House has been refurbished into a wonderful informal space for creative thinking. With natural stone, cosy décor, wood burning stove and traditional oak beams it is a uniquely different venue for your business meeting, corporate event or formal gathering. Activities on site include professional Mountain Bike Trails, water based boating experiences, archery and treasure hunts.
