Day Three — Upper Lough Erne

AM

Another Lough Erne Resort hearty breakfast is on the cards to set you up for a day of exploring the wonders of Upper Lough Erne.

Set off from Kilmore Quay with O'Doherty's Fine Meats and journey across the tranquil Lake to Inish Corkish Island, an island dedicated to pigs. Here you will discover a unique experience and farming method which has produced the finest bacon in Fermanagh. The famous Black Bacon pigs have roamed here freely for years as three generations of the O'Doherty family have reared pigs here, taking the boat across daily to tend to them. This relaxed method of farming combined with generations of family secrets has produced the most succulent pork in the county as well as a fascinating story behind the product. No visit to Fermanagh is complete without a taste of this wonderful local delicacy.

Head into Lisnaskea for a mouth watering lunch in The Kissin' Crust. This idyllic coffee shop is a hidden gem in Fermanagh with a fantastic menu to choose from. Alma's home made treats follow traditional baking with a unique twist as they make each recipe their own. Scrumptious sandwiches, quaint quiches, fluffy scones, tasty traybakes and much more will delight the taste buds on your visit! One thing is for sure—you will not leave hungry!
