Day Two

Marble Arch Caves

Go underground at the Marble Arch Caves and explore one of Europe's finest show caves allowing visitors to explore a fascinating, natural underworld of rivers, waterfalls, winding passages and lofty chambers. Both Marble Arch Caves and the nearby Cuilcagh Mountain Park are jointly recognised jointly as a UNESCO Global Geopark due to the world importance of their geology and landscapes. The site is the only UNESCO Geopark in Northern Ireland and is made up of multiple sites which spraddles the NI and ROI border.

Island Discovery

The Island Discovery pontoon boat is the first of its kind on the Island of Ireland. Island Discovery is a 4 pod boat offering seating & tables for up to 12 passengers. This unique boat provides breathtaking panoramic views of Lough Erne and its shore line, offering visitors a silent, all-electric eco-friendly motor experience and is the best way to appreciate the views and hear the distinct sounds of our waterway. Available to hire for private events or you can choose from a lovely range of experiences, Whiskey and Blues Experience, Lakelander Food Experience or an Island Town Experience with Local Historian.

Florence Court House

Florence Court House, named after St. John Cole's wife Florence Bourdieu, is situated approximately 8 miles from Enniskillen. The house, formerly the home of the Cole family, Earls of Enniskillen, is surrounded by a large area of gardens, parkland and woodland, with breath-taking views to Benaughlin and the Cuilcagh Mountains. With its classical style and exquisite rococo plasterwork, Florence Court is one of Ulster's most important 18th-century houses. The gardens are home to the famous Florence Court Yew - reputedly the 'parent' of all Irish yew trees. The original tree (Taxus baccata "Fastigiata") was discovered circa 1760.

Explore the estate by bike and learn more about the history of the Kitchen Garden and how it played its role in making Florence Court one of the finest examples of a sustainable Irish estate.

Now to eat... Located in a secluded corner on the edge of Florence Court Estate in the foothills of Benaughlin Mountain, Tully Mill Restaurant is a hidden gem when it comes to dining in County Fermanagh. The picturesque restaurant is under the management of local chef, John Roche, who serves up a traditional menu with modern twists, using local and seasonal produce.

Day Four

Boatyard Distillery

The Boatyard Distillery is an award-winning farm-to-bottle distillery located on the banks of Lough Erne. Only the best organic ingredients have been chosen for each of our products with the terroir of the land at the forefront of each new spirit. Their gin botanical, Sweet Gale, is foraged from the family bog and the wheat used for our vodka can be traced from the bottle back to the very field it came from. Founder, Joe McGirr, has utilised his background in spirits and whisky knowledge to build his dream of the first legal distillery in Fermanagh in over 130 years. Joe's dream to build a distillery in the place in which he grew up was inspired by his family's rich farming history. The sustainability efforts by the team here are second to none, which you will find out during this wonderful tour.

Belleek Pottery

Established in 1857, Belleek Pottery holds a very special place in the cultural and commercial heritage of Co Fermanagh. Situated in the picturesque village of Belleek on the banks of the Lough Erne, this imposing building is home to the world famous Belleek Fine Parian China and Belleek Visitor Centre. The craftsmanship and artistry of the pottery's workforce elevated Belleek china to international renown. Original and unique pieces are made using traditional methods passed down from generation to generation.

The Visitor Centre is open Mon-Fri, 10:00 - 16:00

Tours: Mon-Fri, 10:20 until 14:30 approx. (Tour every 30 mins)
